- Passports or Passport Cards issued by the US or a foreign government.

For a complete listing of TSA acceptable forms of ID, please visit Acceptable Identification at the TSA Checkpoint.

TSA is also accepting the following Digital Identification as a part of ongoing testing efforts to strengthen identity security:

- Apple Digital ID
- Clear ID
- Google ID pass

TSA Prohibited Items

Passengers are NOT allowed to bring any item that is on the TSA Prohibited Items List on board the aircraft. Certain items may be allowed in baggage areas that are not accessible in flight, commonly referred to as "checked baggage". Please see the TSA's WHAT CAN I BRING? webpage for a current list of prohibited items and possible special conditions under which they may be carried.

Hazardous Materials Policy Notice

Ozair Charter Service wants to help you avoid carrying anything onboard that violates U.S. Federal Law because violators are subject to imprisonment of up five years and penalties of $250,000, or more. Some ordinary products can be dangerous when transported on aircraft because changes in temperature and pressure can cause leaks, toxic fumes, or fires. Please ensure such items are not in your baggage.

Burgess Aircraft Management, LLC (dba Ozair Charter Service) is a WILL-NOT CARRY Hazardous Materials air carrier and will not accept any form of Hazardous Material for transport unless it complies with the exceptions for passengers as listed in 49 CFR 175.10.
